Job description: Police Officer

from 1/2014 through present (full time)

On August 18, 2017, I met with Captain Krauel, former Commander for Professional Standards for the Town of Palm Beach Police Department. He provided a "fact file" for the candidate which revealed one internal affairs investigation. In 2015, a subject accused the candidate of excessive use of force. The investigation determined that the candidate "acted properly and violated no policies." It should be noted that the file also contained numerous written commendations by residents and supervisors for the candidate's
